City to Host Fischer Park Volunteer Meet and Greet

New Braunfels, Texas - The New Braunfels Parks and Recreation Department is hosting a Fischer Park volunteer meet and greet on Wednesday, June 24th beginning at 6:30 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Fischer Park Nature Education Center, located at 1946 Monarch Way. Those interested in volunteer opportunities at the Center are encouraged to attend the informational session.

“We hope to have a productive visit with interested volunteers,” said Mike Wallace, Nature Center Supervisor. “We will gather volunteer project interest, discuss potential volunteer projects, work day schedules and volunteer policies.”

Following the meeting, regular volunteer work days will be scheduled at Fischer Park.

For additional information on the event, or volunteer opportunities at Fischer Park, call the Nature Education Center at 830-221-4378.
