Probable Drowning Victim Identified

New Braunfels, Texas — The probable drowning victim found Tuesday morning in the Guadalupe River has been identified as 37-year old Tereso de Jesus Zeta-Ortega of New Braunfels and next of kin has been notified.

Zeta-Ortega was found in the river around 11am on Tuesday, Aug. 4, 2015, by a group of tubers near the 1400 block of Sleepy Hollow (about ¼-mile from the Gruene River Bridge).

His death remains under investigation, however, preliminary autopsy results indicate no signs of foul play and that his death was caused by accidental drowning.
