New Braunfels Public Library Temporary Closure Saturday, August 26h

New Braunfels, Texas — The New Braunfels Public Library, the Westside Branch Library, the RIOmobile bookmobile and the Westside Community Center will not open to the public on Saturday, August 26th due to expected hazardous weather conditions created by Hurricane Harvey.

“We regret the impact that closing for the day will have for our library customers, however we do anticipate re-opening on Sunday at the main library and resuming regular hours for all locations next week,” explained Library Director Gretchen Pruett. “Should that change, we will update this public notice.

For questions regarding the closures, or other matters, call the library at 830-221-4300.
