Free Historic Museum Day

New Braunfels, TX – The month of May is “National Historic Preservation Month.” Join thousands of individuals across the country to celebrate Historic Preservation. The City of New Braunfels’ Historic Landmark Commission is celebrating Preservation Month by sponsoring its annual “Free Historic Museum Day” on May 18th from noon to 4:00 p.m. The following museums will be offering free admission and special programming during this event: The Sophienburg Museum, The New Braunfels Fire Station Museum, the Museum of Texas Handmade Furniture, and the Historic Outdoor Art Museum’s El Legado de Nuestra Jornada Mural.

This event is a great opportunity to learn more about our local history and take advantage of some really unique special programming including live music and dancing, a charro demonstration, living history reenactments and more.

Further information on both of these events is available at www.nbtexas.org/historicpreservation.
