Library Adds Evening Family Storytime for Busy Families

New Braunfels, TX — An evening, family-friendly storytime program will become part of the regular storytime lineup at the New Braunfels Public Library starting this September.

Family Storytime will be held in the evening for the first time on Tuesday, September 3rd, from 6:00 to 7:00 p.m., and will continue to occur on Tuesdays at 6:00 p.m. indefinitely.

“We understand that busy schedules and work commitments can keep many families from attending our morning programs,” said Youth Services Librarian Jenny Rodriguez. “To give families more options, we are excited to be offering this evening session of our popular Family Storytime. Kids and caregivers will be able to hear some great books, sing, move, and get creative after the program with an art activity.”

Family Storytime is a free program and children of all ages may attend with their parent, guardian or caregiver.

Many library programs, including Family Storytime, are made possible with the support of the Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.

For more information about Family Storytime or other children’s programs, contact the New Braunfels Public Library at 830-221-4300 or visit www.nbtexas.org/Library.
