New Braunfels Municipal Court Offers Night Court November 14th

New Braunfels, TX –New Braunfels Municipal Court is providing an opportunity for all individuals with outstanding warrants to responsibly clear their cases during extended hours on November 14th.

“We want to help people avoid arrest and additional fees. People will not get arrested if they appear at court,” says Warrant Officer Larry Hildebrand.

To accommodate individuals with unresolved warrants, New Braunfels Municipal Court will have extended hours on Thursday, November 14th from 8:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. Individuals with outstanding warrants can expect to receive notification by mail, email or phone call from New Braunfels Municipal Court. Defendants may call the court to find out about their options.

Under Texas Law, individuals that appear before a court and make a good faith effort to resolve their outstanding Class C warrants are afforded safe harbor and not subject to arrest. Additionally, if a judgment is rendered against an individual who is unable to pay the judgment, the individual may request a judge to assess their ability to pay and offer alternative means to satisfy the judgment.

“We strongly encourage individuals who suspect that they have an outstanding case or warrant with our court to contact us to be certain their case is closed,” said Robin Shellard, Court Administrator.

People who believe they may have an outstanding warrant can view their case status and make payment in full at www.nbtexas.org/court or call 830 221 4180. New Braunfels Municipal Court is normally open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Wednesdays from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
