

CITY OF NEW BRAUNFELS POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

PROCEDURE(S): CODE OF CONDUCT

EFFECTIVE DATE: MAY 20, 2019

REVISION DATE(S):

CODE OF CONDUCT

Each employee is responsible for following City rules of conduct, policies, and practices. The City expects all employees will interact and treat each other with dignity and respect. All City employees should maintain the utmost standards of personal integrity, truthfulness and fairness in carrying out their duties, avoiding real or perceived improprieties in their roles as public servants and never using their City positions or powers for improper personal or professional gain. Any conduct that is contrary to this policy is not acceptable and may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. This policy does not alter the at-will employment relationship between the city and the employee.

All employees shall perform their official duties in a lawful, professional, and ethical manner; practice responsible stewardship of organizational resources and report any conduct or activity that they believe to be in violation of this policy.

A. Improper Conduct

Employees must perform their assigned duties to the best of their ability and in the best interest of the City, fellow employees, customers, visitors and vendors. Employees must not take action that creates a risk, harm or damage to oneself, another person, the City, or the property of the City or others.

Employees must adhere to and fully comply with all City policies and procedures. Managers/Supervisors must be conscious of the fact that they are agents of the City, and as such, their actions may be attributed to the City under certain circumstances even while off duty. Therefore, they should avoid situations that place the City at risk and/or call their professionalism into question.

This section provides examples of prohibited conduct. The infractions listed are only examples and are not meant, and do not, include all reasons for which an employee may be disciplined or terminated. The Employee Code of Conduct may be amended from time to time.

C. Children in the Workplace

Employees are not permitted to bring children to work with them. Exceptions to this policy may be permitted by the Department Head to allow employees to bring their children to visit their worksite, provided that the visits are infrequent, brief, and planned in a fashion that limits disruption to the workplace. While children are in the workplace, they must be directly supervised by the host/parent at all times.

D. Working hours and Reporting for Work

1. The normal work week for City employees is forty [40] hours. The normal number of hours worked per week may vary by department based on such factors as local, state or federal statutes, work load, time of year, etc.
2. Administrative and staff employees will normally work from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.; however, Department Directors, with City Manager or designee approval, may establish work schedules in their departments based on the business needs and functions of the department. Scheduled changes may not affect coverage during business hours or affect customer service. Lunch breaks will be scheduled by Department Directors in accordance with the Department of Labor, department requirements and the need to provide service to citizens and customers. All non-exempt employees who work a 9-hour day must be offered a 60-minute, unpaid lunch. These employees shall not be required or expected to perform any job-related tasks while at lunch.
3. An employee shall report for work physically and mentally fit at the time and place specified by the Manager/Supervisor and remain physically and mentally fit throughout the work day. The employee must be properly prepared to immediately assume and continue the duties of his/her position, which includes being aware of information required for proper performance of that work.

E. Absences and Late Reporting to Work

1. No employee may be absent without prior notification and authorization. This includes failure to report for work at the assigned time and place or leaving a place of duty or assignment without proper authorization. This rule applies to any scheduled activity for which the employee is compensated to include but not limited to break[s] by the City.

2. In most, but not all cases, employees should be able to plan their absences from work. Employees shall advise their Supervisor or Department Director that he/she will not be at work and provide an explanation within the time limits established by the department.
3. Any employee missing work for two [2] consecutive shifts or work days without prior approval by the Manager/Supervisor or without notifying the Manager/Supervisor or the Department Director of the reason for the absence shall be deemed to have resigned his/her employment with the City.

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE PREVENTION

It is the policy of the City of New Braunfels to prohibit any acts or threats of violence [verbal or physical] by any employee, former employee or individual against any other employee, or individual in or about the City's facilities while on duty, on or off the City's premises at any time.

- A. In order to provide a safe work environment in this regard, the City is committed to the following:
 1. To take prompt remedial action, up to and including immediate termination of employment, against any employee who engages in any physically threatening behavior or acts of violence by using any obscene, abusive, or threatening language or gestures.
 2. To take appropriate action against former employees or other individuals on the City's premises who engage in such behavior. Such action may include notifying the police or other law enforcement authorities, and prosecuting violators of this Policy to the maximum extent of the law.
 3. To prohibit employees, former employees and other individuals from bringing unauthorized firearms or other weapons onto the City's premises.
 4. To establish practical and reasonable security measures for the City's workplace.
 5. To report any employee who displays a tendency to engage in violent, abusive or physically threatening behavior to the Manager/Supervisor for counseling or other appropriate action[s]. Such employees may also be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

POSSESSION OF WEAPONS OR EXPLOSIVES

- A. The City of New Braunfels does not permit employees to possess or use any kind of weapon [licensed peace officers are an exception to this policy], explosive or other dangerous implements while employees are at the workplace or otherwise performing duties on behalf of the City. This Policy applies whether or not a weapon is armed or loaded. Weapons must be properly secured and concealed in an employee's personal vehicle. No employee using a City owned vehicle may possess a weapon, excluding those secured in a privately-owned vehicle.
- B. The City reserves the right to inspect, search and monitor employees and their personal property on City premises or while performing City business to ensure compliance.
- C. The mere fact that a citizen is carrying a weapon on City property or inside a City facility should not be cause for alarm or require a police response. However, if the person is causing a disturbance or behaving in an alarming manner, the police should be called to investigate.
- D. For additional information, reference the Open Carry Guide.

ANTI-FRAUD

This policy applies to any actual or suspected fraud, theft, waste, or abuse involving any City employee, a consultant, vendor, contractor, outside agency, or person doing business with the City or in any other relationship with the City. The City of New Braunfels does not tolerate any type of fraud, theft, waste or abuse. The City's policy is to promote consistent, legal, and ethical organizational behavior by:

- a. Assigning responsibility for reporting fraud, theft, waste or abuse.

PROCEDURE(S): CODE OF CONDUCT

EFFECTIVE DATE: MAY 20, 2019

REVISION DATE(S):

- b. Providing guidelines to conduct investigations of suspected fraudulent behavior.
- c. Requiring employees to attend fraud awareness training.

Failure to comply with this policy subjects any City employee to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination. Failure to comply by a consultant, vendor, contractor, outside agency, or person doing business with the City or in any other relationship with the City could result in cancellation of the business or other relationship between the entity and the City. The City of New Braunfels will pursue prosecution if the results of an investigation indicate the possibility of criminal activity. The City of New Braunfels contracts with EthicsPoint as a means for employees to report suspected fraud, theft, waste or abuse anonymously. The anonymity of the employee reporting will be respected at all times. For purposes of this policy only, the term fraud or fraudulent includes theft, waste, and abuse as defined below. The term employee includes employees in management positions. The term management includes directors, managers, assistant managers, supervisors and any other employee who has authority to sign another employee's performance evaluation.

A. Definitions of Fraud, Waste, Abuse and Theft

1. Fraud is defined as an intentional deception designed to obtain a benefit or advantage or to cause some benefit that is due to be denied.
2. Waste is the loss or misuse of City resources that results from deficient practices, system controls, or decisions.
3. Abuse is the intentional, wrongful, or improper use of resources or misuse of rank, position, or authority that causes the loss or misuse of resources, such as tools, vehicles, computers, copy machines, etc.
4. Theft is defined as the act of taking something from someone unlawfully.

B. Responsibility to Report Suspected Fraud

1. Each employee is required to report any suspected fraud, theft, waste or abuse or other dishonest conduct through EthicsPoint, to the employee's management or to the Ethics Officer. The Ethics Officer is the City Attorney or Attorney designee.

REVISION DATE(S):

2. Management is required to report suspected fraud, theft, waste or abuse or other dishonest conduct, including reports from employees or other individuals, either through EthicsPoint, the Ethics Officer or to higher level management.
3. Management does not have the authority to determine the merits of a report of suspected fraud. The Ethics Officer will make a determination with the assistance of the Human Resources Director and/or City Management.
4. The identity of an employee or complainant who reports suspected fraud will be protected to the full extent allowed by law.
5. Suspected improprieties and/or misconduct concerning an employee's ethical conduct should be reported through EthicsPoint, to the Department Director or the Ethics officer.

CONFIDENTIALITY

In the course of one's work, an employee may have access to information about the City, employees, or vendors, which is confidential. The City requires all employees to protect the integrity and confidentiality of such information by safeguarding it and accepting responsibility for its security and proper use.

A. Examples of Precautionary Measures

1. Discuss work matters only with other City employees who have a specific business reason to know or have access to such information.
2. Do not discuss confidential work or customer-related matters in public places.
3. Monitor and supervise visitors to City offices to ensure they do not have access to confidential information.
4. Secure confidential information in desk drawers and cabinets at the end of every business day.
5. Take steps to protect the confidentiality of electronic confidential information by limiting access, for example, by the use of passwords.

REVISION DATE(S):

If at any time you are uncertain as to whether you can divulge certain information or how you should secure it, please consult with the Human Resources Department. Confidential information which employees are exposed to shall remain the property of the City. Such information cannot be disclosed or used on behalf of anyone else except the City, during your employment or afterwards. All documents and materials received in connection with your employment must be returned upon the termination of your employment, regardless of the reason.

Employees who are found violating the City's policy on confidentiality will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment. The City reserves the right to take any legal action necessary to enforce its proprietary interest in any confidential information and to protect such information from unauthorized disclosure.

B. Confidentiality of Medical Information

The City strives to protect the privacy of its employees' medical information. To accomplish this, the City and its managers and employees are required to follow these guidelines regarding the confidentiality of medical information.

1. All medical information concerning employees will be maintained in separate, confidential medical files that are stored separately from regular personnel records in the Human Resources Department. Only authorized employees will have access to such files. Access will be provided solely on a need-to-know basis and in accordance with applicable law.
2. Employees with access to medical information of other employees are instructed that such information is absolutely confidential and will not be discussed with or disclosed to any other employee or person unless such discussion or disclosure is necessary as part of the employee's job duties or when discussing the information with the employee that is the subject of the information and with the subject employee's invitation.
3. Any employee who is found to have violated the Confidentiality of Medical Information policy or has been found to have released such information without authorization, will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including immediate termination from employment.

Employees also should be aware that a violation of medical information confidentiality may also subject the employee to civil and criminal liability under state and federal laws.

SOCIAL MEDIA

Social media are powerful communication tools that have a significant impact on organizational and professional reputations. The purpose of this policy is to address employees participating in personal social media rather than to enumerate the use of social media by the City as an institution. Social Media is defined as media designed to be disseminated through social interaction, created using highly accessible and scalable publishing techniques. Examples include but are not limited to LinkedIn, Twitter, Facebook and YouTube.

A. Provisions

1. Employees are limited to posting and/or working on their personal social media sites during business hours. Employees may post and/or work on their personal social media sites during his/her designated lunch and/or breaks.
2. When posting to personal sites during off-duty hours, employees are prohibited from utilizing the City of New Braunfels logos, disclosing confidential or proprietary information about the City and its employees, and using offensive language. Employees shall refrain from making negative references to the City and must identify your views as your own and not the City's. Employee's personal social media accounts are subject to open records law when it relates to City business.
3. Employees may access and post to social media sites if it is done as part of their essential functions as an employee. Do not post confidential or proprietary information about the City of its employees when posting on social media in connection with your employment.

Employees who violate any section of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination. Any user having personal knowledge of misuse or violation(s) of this policy who fail to report such violation(s) to his or her supervisor or the Human Resources Department in a timely manner

SOLICITATION

It is the policy of the City of New Braunfels to limit solicitation and distribution of literature by employees and/or vendors in the workplace. Any solicitation by employees and/or vendors in the workplace is subject to Human Resources Department approval.

Solicitations within the community on behalf of the City must have the prior approval of the City Manager or designee.

POLITICAL ACTIVITY

The City desires to maintain a high level of accountability and high standards of professionalism while respecting the rights of employees outside the workplace. This Policy is designed to maintain those goals.

A. Political Participation

Section 12.03 of the New Braunfels City Charter and Section 2-5 [c] of the City Code of Ordinances contain provisions dealing with political activity by City employees and employees should familiarize themselves with those rules. Generally, the Charter and Code provide the following:

1. No employee shall solicit or assist in the soliciting of any assessment subscription, or contribution for any political party or political purpose from any subordinate employee.
2. No employee shall solicit or receive any contribution to the campaign funds of any candidate for municipal office or take part in the management, affairs, or political campaign of any municipal candidate.
3. An employee may place campaign signs on premises owned by the employee; place bumper stickers on personal vehicles except those vehicles supported in whole or in part by a car allowance provided by the City; and attend a political rally or functions of a municipal candidate provided that the employee does not actively participate in the rally or function and not on City time.

4. An employee is not limited in participating in county, state, or national elections [Please reference Endorsements as City Employees].
5. In addition to the above Charter and Code provisions, no employee shall:
 - a. Coerce an employee to participate in, or to refrain from participating in, a political campaign
 - b. Require an employee to contribute to any political fund, render any political service, or support or oppose any political election. Employees may not be punished in any way for refusing to do so.

B. Endorsements as City Employees

1. Employees are prohibited from using their official capacities as City employees to influence, interfere with, or affect the results of an election.
2. Employees, during hours of work or while in a City uniform or wearing a City logo or emblem, shall not take an active part in a political campaign for an elective position or elective proposition. The term "active part" means making political speeches, passing out cards or other political literature, writing letters, signing petitions, actively and openly soliciting votes, and making public remarks about the candidates for such elective positions or about the propositions.
3. During work hours, employees shall not engage in any activity that could be construed as giving Departmental or City sanction to any candidate for public office or for or against any political proposition. This provision prohibits soliciting votes, wearing campaign buttons, distributing campaign literature at work or while wearing a City uniform or an item of clothing containing a City logo or emblem, or while in the offices or buildings owned and/or leased by the City. Employees shall not use City equipment, including computers, printers, cell phones, telephones and e-mails, to engage in any political activity. An employee shall not list his/her position or occupation with the City in an endorsement of a candidate for public office, or while addressing political gatherings in support of, or in opposition to, a partisan candidate or political proposition on a ballot where the employee's position or occupation is listed.
4. With regard to City bond elections, a City employee may use City equipment or appear in City uniform or while wearing an article of clothing containing a City logo or emblem, to explain the use of the bond proceeds or the projects to be funded with the bond proceeds. However, a City employee shall refrain from stating that citizens should vote in favor of, or against, the bond propositions. While on duty, employees must also refrain from using words that are supportive or derogatory of such propositions.

C. Candidates for New Braunfels City Council

1. Any City employee who enters a race for New Braunfels City Council shall notify his/her Manager/Supervisor and immediately resign his/her employment with the City.
2. It shall be deemed that the employee resigned his/her position at the time that he/she declares himself/herself as a candidate.

D. Candidates for Other Political Offices

1. A City employee elected to any other political office shall report this fact to his/her Department Director and the City Manager.
2. The City Manager may review the situation and the employee's election to determine if actual or potential conflicts of interest or other reasons exist that could require the employee to resign or be terminated.

COUNCIL COMMUNICATION

At the City Manager's discretion, he/she will set parameters and expectations regarding direct or indirect communication between staff and City Council members.
