Air Force Band of the West Concert Band Set for Holiday Concert

New Braunfels, TX – The City of New Braunfels is hosting a free holiday concert featuring the world famous Air Force Band of the West Concert Band. This event is open to the public and will be held from 7 p.m. until 8:30 p.m. on Tuesday, December 9th at the New Braunfels Civic/Convention Center, 375 South Castell Avenue. Doors will open at 6:00 p.m. and attendees should arrive early for best seating.

“The Air Force Band of the West has performed in New Braunfels for the past three years celebrating Independence Day with free concerts,” said Mandi Scott, Civic/Convention Center Manager. “If you haven’t seen them perform, you shouldn’t miss this opportunity to enjoy vocal and instrumental pieces that will inspire your holiday spirit.”

The band’s selections consist of music from the Renaissance through the present day, from symphonic band literature to Broadway musicals, and from Sousa marches to today’s popular hits. The members of the band are all highly skilled professionals coming from colleges and universities all over the nation to serve the United States Air Force. The Concert Band brings a uniquely motivating experience to military members and civilians by combining pride in the Air Force story with a love for music and education.
