M. Andrew Holowchak Speaking on Thomas Jefferson At New Braunfels Public Library

New Braunfels, Texas — The New Braunfels Public Library will offer a lecture by Dr. M. Andrew Holowchak, on Wednesday, July 1st at 7:00 p.m., entitled “Thomas Jefferson, His Declaration of Independence, and His Enduring Legacy of Liberty.”

This timely discussion will provide an overview of Jefferson’s contributions to the early American republic, his writings and their expression of American ideals on liberty, as well offer insights into our third president’s historical legacy.

Holowchak, professor of Philosophy at the University of the Incarnate Word in San Antonio, is one of the world’s foremost scholars on Thomas Jefferson and author of numerous books on him—among them, Dutiful Correspondent: Philosophical Essays on Thomas Jefferson, Thomas Jefferson’s Philosophy of Education: A Utopian Dream, and Thomas Jefferson: Uncovering His Unique Philosophy and Vision.

This program is made possible with the support of The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.
