Flags to Fly at Half Staff in Honor of Service Members Killed in Chattanooga

New Braunfels, TX – By order of the President of the United States, the U.S. flag will be flown at half staff as a mark of respect to the memory of the service members killed on July 16th in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

According to the presidential proclamation, flags will remain at half staff at the White House, public buildings, embassies and military buildings until sunset on July 25, 2015.

Flags at City of New Braunfels facilities are being lowered in observation of this proclamation, and citizens are also encouraged to also fly their flags at half staff in honor of the late service members.
