City Seeks Input from Residents on Sports Complex Feasibility Study via Survey

New Braunfels, Texas – The City of New Braunfels is hosting an online survey to gather resident input for the Sports Complex Feasibility Study. Residents are invited to take the short survey and share their thoughts and ideas on the project.

The online survey can be accessed from Friday, October 9th through Friday, October 30th via the City's homepage New Braunfels News feature column, at www.nbtexas.org, or citizens can access the survey directly at <http://bit.ly/NBsportscomplex>.

In Proposition 3 of the 2013 Bond Program voters approved funding for the acquisition of land for development of a future sports complex, and in August of 2015 City Council approved the expenditure of $50,000 in 4B funds to fund a feasibility study for the project.

New Braunfels' residents are also invited to a public input meeting on the Sports Complex Feasibility Study on Tuesday, October 13th, at 7:00 p.m., at the New Braunfels Civic/Convention Center, located at 375 S. Castell Avenue. During this meeting PROS Consulting, the firm conducting the feasibility study, will provide an update on the project vision, steps and schedule, present the market analysis and take public input.
