Robbery

New Braunfels, Texas — On Dec. 1st, 2015, at approximately 9:05pm, officers were called to the 1700 block of Rolling Rapids Drive for reports of a robbery and vehicle theft.

Responding officers learned that a female pizza delivery driver was delivering pizzas to an address on Rolling Rapids when she was grabbed from behind and thrown to the ground. The 34-year old victim sustained non-life threatening injuries during the assault and was later transported to Christus New Braunfels Hospital for treatment.

Immediately following the assault the two males entered the victim's vehicle, a black 2014 Dodge Dart, and fled the scene in that vehicle. Other responding officers began searching for the vehicle which was located a few minutes later traveling southbound on I-35 near Solms Road. A pursuit of the vehicle began which also eventually involved Live Oak Police. However, the vehicle was able to elude officers near the intersection of O'Connor and Weidner Road so the pursuit was called off. A short time later San Antonio Police notified NBPD that the vehicle had been found abandoned in San Antonio (in the 12000 block of Command Post Street) with no sign of the suspects.

The suspects are described as black males in their late teens or early 20's. One suspect is described as approximately 5-foot 6-inches tall with a slender build wearing a gray sweatshirt, red hoodie, and khaki pants. The other suspect is described as approximately 6-foot 1-inches tall, weighing 200+ pounds. There was no clothing description given for the second suspect.

Anyone with information on these suspects is asked to call New Braunfels Police or Comal County Crime Stoppers. Crime Stoppers is offering a reward of up to $2000 for information that leads to an arrest and/or grand jury indictment. To remain anonymous and to collect the reward, contact Crime Stoppers at 830-620-TIPS (8477), leave a tip online at <http://comalcrimestoppers.org/>, or text a tip by texting "Comal" plus your message to CRIMES (274637). To contact the New Braunfels Police Department directly, call 830-221-4100.
