

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

April 6, 2016

CONTACT: Gretchen Pruett, Library Director
700 E. Common St.
New Braunfels, TX 78130
830.221.4322
gpruett@nbtexas.org

Westside Community Center Partners with San Antonio Food Bank to Host Free Money Management Support Group Sessions

New Braunfels, Texas — The Westside Community Center is partnering with San Antonio Food Bank/Kitchen Table to offer FREE financial literacy sessions to residents in New Braunfels and surrounding areas. The sessions will be held through the months of April and May, on Wednesday evenings from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m., at the Westside Community Center. The Center is located at is located at 2932 S. IH-35 in New Braunfels.

“We are thankful that our great partnership with the food bank allows us to offer these financial support sessions. The free classes will allow people to analyze spending habits and prepare for successful money management in the future,” said Outreach Coordinator Jennifer Hernandez. “Increasing confidence in money managing decisions is important for everyone. We can all benefit from these informative classes.”

Schedule for April:

- April 6th - Identifying Spending Habits
- April 13th - Making Difficult Financial Decision
- April 20th - Determining Personal Needs and Wants
- April 27th - Setting Financial Goal for the Future

The sessions will continue in the month of May with additional topics including:

- Goals for the Future
- Credit/Credit Scores
- Reducing Debt
- Financial Services.

For more information about the money management support group, please call Jennifer Hernandez at 830-221-4630, the Westside Community Center Library at 830-221-4301, or Ashley Hurst with the San Antonio Food Bank/Kitchen Table at 210-431-8510.

###