All Abilities Resource Fair set for Saturday, April 8th

New Braunfels, Texas – The City of New Braunfels Parks and Recreation Department, along with Oakwood Baptist Mark 9 Ministry, is hosting the second annual All Abilities Resource Fair Saturday, April 8th from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. along Playground Drive in Landa Park.

“Over 25 exhibitors are participating in this free community event to support adults and children with disabilities and their families and caregivers,” said Robin Kunkel, Recreation Manager. “This collaborative event highlights the various resources available to all in our community.”

Exhibitors will host stations along Playground Drive providing information and activities for everyone to participate in and enjoy. The Texas Junior Anglers and Boy Scout Troop 133 will host fishing opportunities and music will be provided by Oakwood High School Ministry. Granzin’s Meat Market will serve a complimentary hot dog lunch.
