Memory Café at the New Braunfels Public Library

New Braunfels, TX - The New Braunfels Public Library is starting a monthly Memory Café on the 1st Friday of each month from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

“November is Alzheimer’s awareness month, so we wanted to start our new program - Memory Café - which is a gathering time for those experiencing memory loss and their caregivers,” commented Toni Davenport, Adult Services Librarian. “Alzheimer’s and dementia affect a lot of people, so we decided to start a monthly Memory Café, which is a time where we’ll have activities - such as music or art - as well as guest speakers talking about things like stress busting tips. It’s also a great time to meet other people in the community and discuss common struggles or simply make new friends.”

This program is free, open to the public and no registration is necessary. It is made possible with the support of The Friends of the New Braunfels Public Library.

For more information about the program, call the library at 830-221-4300.
