All Fireworks Prohibited Inside the City Limits

New Braunfels, TX – The possession or use of any kind of firework is prohibited (illegal) inside the city limits of New Braunfels. Public safety officers will be responding to complaints concerning the use of fireworks through the New Year’s holiday. Anyone found to be in possession of or using fireworks within the city limits may be issued a citation and have their fireworks confiscated.

Individuals can legally transport fireworks through the City in a locked glove compartment, in the trunk, or in the bed of a truck. The law requires that purchased fireworks remain packaged, unopened and placed in storage sections of cars or trucks, away from passenger seats.

For additional information contact the Fire Marshal’s office, at (830) 221-4200.
