Das Rec 2019 Fee Assistance Applications Due by April 30th

New Braunfels, TX – The City of New Braunfels Parks and Recreation Department 2019 Das Rec Fee Assistance Program Applications have been available for several months now and will be accepted through April 30th.

The Das Rec Fee Assistance Program allows New Braunfels residents with financial hardship the opportunity to experience Das Rec memberships, programs and services at a reduced rate. Awards are based on income and family size, and are available to anyone who qualifies, including seniors. Discounts range from 20% to 75%, depending on the level of need as determined by the Housing and Urban Development (HUD) income guidelines. Applications must be completed with the appropriate support documentation to be considered.

“Funding for the fee assistance program was raised at a scholarship gala held prior to the opening of Das Rec,” said Kelsey Heiden, Recreation Center Manager. “Through the New Braunfels Parks Foundation, many community members and local businesses contributed to the event that successfully raised over $90,000.”

Applications are available online at www.dasrec.com or in-person at Das Rec, New Braunfels Recreation Center, located at 345 Landa Street. For additional information about Das Rec or the Fee Assistance Program contact Kelsey Heiden at kheiden@nbtexas.org or 830-221-4170.
