Donegan Represents Southern Texas PGA at 2019 PGA Professional Championship

New Braunfels, TX - Chad Donegan, PGA Director of Golf at Landa Park Golf Course at Comal Springs, advanced to the PGA Professional Championship along with eight other others that will represent the Southern Texas PGA at the 52nd PGA Professional Championship. 312 players from all over the country will compete starting this Sunday, April 28th through May 1st, at Belfair in Bluffton, South Carolina.

“We are so proud of Chad,” said Stacey Dicke, Parks and Recreation Director. “We can’t wait to cheer him on at the PGA Professional Championship.”

The 2019 PGA Champion will have their name inscribed on the base of the Walter Hagen Cup and will receive exemptions for the following:

- 2019 PGA Championship
- 2019 PGA Cup
- Six PGA Tour events over a 12-month period

The low 20 scorers in the Championship earn a berth in the 2019 PGA Championship, May 16th through 19th, at Bethpage Black in New York. The event will be shown on the Golf Channel.
