No provision of this Escrow Agreement shall require the Escrow Agent to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of its obligations hereunder. In the event there should be any dispute between any of the parties with respect to the Easement, the Escrow Agent upon learning of the dispute, shall refuse to comply with any such claims or demands so long as such disagreement continues, and in so refusing, shall make no delivery by it under the Escrow Agreement. The Escrow Agent shall not become liable in any way for such refusal and shall be entitled to continue to refrain from acting until the rights of the adverse claimants are finally settled by a adjudication in a court of competent jurisdiction, or until all differences are resolved by written agreement signed by all parties to the dispute, and the Escrow Agent has been notified of such final adjudication or written agreement. Further, the Escrow Agent shall have the right, at any time after dispute between the other parties hereto has arisen, to deliver the Easement into the registry of a court of competent jurisdiction in Comal County, Texas.
