

2.14 Patron Rights and Responsibilities

To protect the public's right of access to library facilities, to ensure the safety of patrons of all ages and staff, and to protect library resources and facilities, certain rules of conduct and levels of responsibility must be followed.

The Library Director and authorized staff are responsible for enforcing customer conduct in the library and on library premises. Anyone found to be interfering with another's use and enjoyment of the library will be asked to stop the behavior or activity. If the behavior continues, the staff will ask the individual to leave the library. Failure to leave will result in staff calling the police for assistance, and the offender will be subject to arrest and/or be issued a criminal trespass warrant.

For the safety and comfort of children, a responsible parent or caregiver should accompany and supervise children who are using the library. While in the library, parents and caregivers are responsible for monitoring and regulating the behavior of their children. The library is not equipped, nor is it the library's role, to provide long- or short-term childcare or supervision.

Library staff members will refer to this policy when necessary, including in response to the following situations:

- a. An unattended child is found frightened or crying in the library.
- b. An unattended child is perceived to be endangering him or herself, or that another person in the library poses a perceived threat to the unattended child.
- c. An unattended child exhibits specific inappropriate behavior as described above.
- d. An unattended child has not been met by a responsible caregiver at closing time.

After evaluating the situation, library staff members will attempt to contact the parent or guardian of the unattended child. In the event the parent or guardian cannot be reached, the child will be placed in the care of the New Braunfels Police Department.
